Official Form 206A/B Schedule A/B: Assets - Real and Personal Property

12/15

Disclose all property, real and personal, which the debtor owns or in which the debtor has any other legal, equitable, or future interest. Include all property in which the debtor holds rights and powers exercisable for the debtor's own benefit. Also include assets and properties which have no book value, such as fully depreciated assets or assets that were not capitalized. In Schedule A/B, list any executory contracts or unexpired leases. Also list them on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 206G).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. At the top of any pages added, write the debtor's name and case number (if known). Also identify the form and line number to which the additional information applies. If an additional sheet is attached, include the amounts from the attachment in the total for the pertinent part.

For Part 1 through Part 11, list each asset under the appropriate category or attach separate supporting schedules, such as a fixed asset schedule or depreciation schedule, that gives the details for each asset in a particular category. List each asset only once. In valuing the debtor's interest, do not deduct the value of secured claims. See the instructions to understand the terms used in this form.

RETAINER AGREEMENT BETWEEN O. ALLAN FRIDMAN, AS ATTORNEYS, AND BELMONT TRADING CO., INC. AS CLIENT

Preambles

Whereas, s BELMONT TRADING CO., INC (“the Debtor”) has experienced financial difficulties and cannot currently pay its creditors according to the terms of installment agreements; and

Whereas, due to the financial difficulties the Client has determined to file a Chapter 11 Bankruptcy;

Whereas the Client and the Attorneys desire to reduce to writing the terms of the Agreement regarding the Attorneys' representation of the Client in relation to the Chapter 11 case;

Now therefore, in consideration of the obligations of the Attorneys and the Client set forth herein, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Article 1. The Attorneys' Duties

1.1 The Attorneys shall represent generally the Client in the workout/Chapter 11 proceeding, including negotiating a plan of reorganization, drafting of a disclosure statement, and the various administrative duties attendant to such a case. The Client understands that some of the matters involved may be complex. Client understands that further investigation by the Attorneys and/or other future events may from time to time change the Attorneys' advice regarding any and all matters brought to them, perhaps materially so. The Attorneys are not obligated to begin or to continue to prosecute or defend any claim that in their sole professional judgment is or becomes objectively or subjectively frivolous, can only be brought in bad faith, or whose continued prosecution comes to constitute bad faith, violates or comes to violate any rule or code of professional ethics, or has or comes to have so little chance of success on the merits that it is not reasonable to expect the Attorneys to continue to invest their time in the prosecution thereof. The Attorneys may advise Client to settle any or all of Client's particular matters in which they become involved.

1.2 If the Client should not act with absolute honesty and integrity with the Attorneys, then the Attorneys may either decline to represent the Client or discontinue such representation immediately and in either such case, the Client agrees not to object to the Attorneys' withdrawal for such reasons in any way.

1.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit either of the Parties from describing or clarifying the Attorneys' representation regarding a particular matter.

Article 2. The Attorneys' Authority To Act

2.1 In matters of professional responsibility, the Attorneys shall act in their own discretion as they deem proper under the applicable rules of court and the Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility and/or the Rules of the United States District Court/Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois, or such other court(s) wherein the Attorneys may come to represent the Client (collectively "ICPR"), and without any direction from the Client. However, the Client remains free to comment on any aspect of the Attorneys' professional conduct and is encouraged by the Attorneys to do so at any time.

2.2 The Attorneys recognize that it is the Attorneys' general duty to carry out the directions of their principal, the Client, but the Client recognizes that their agents, the Attorneys, are possessed of special skills and training in legal matters beyond those of the Client. Therefore, in matters of general strategy, the Attorneys shall follow the general directions of the Client where such direction does not impinge upon the Attorneys professional responsibilities in any or all matters, or the Attorneys' professional judgment in matters concerning which a full consultation with the Client is not practical-for example, and certainly without limitation, how to proceed in open court, when Client cannot be reached, or when immediate action is needed.

2.3 Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, nothing herein shall be construed to limit the Attorneys' responsibilities under the ICPR, but it is the Parties' desire that the provisions hereof be liberally construed to the extent possible to conform to said [ICPR. Should any provision hereof be found to violate the said [CPR, such finding shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof unless such finding would substantially and materially affect the basic purposes hereof, which are to provide the Client with legal representation and to provide for reasonable payment to the Attorneys.

Article 3. The Attorneys' Fees

3.1 The Debtor has agreed to pay the Attorneys a retainer of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) plus filing fees subject to court approval. The Bankruptcy Court may award future retainers and fees.

3.2. All retainers described herein, including all future retainers, are expressly agreed to be "advance payment retainers" as described in In re Production Associates, Ltd., 264 B.R. 180 (Bkrcty.N.D.111.2001) and Dowling v. Chicago Options Associates, Inc., 2007 WL 1288279 (111.). The Attorneys will commingle the retainer and any future retainer(s) immediately upon receipt with their general funds being obligated only to refund an amount equal to the unearned portion thereof, if any (and not the actual retainer funds themselves), promptly after the termination of the Attorneys' services. Ordinarily, Client has the option to request that the retainer be considered a "security retainer" where Client continues to have an interest in the funds, but Client recognizes and agrees that the Attorneys would not undertake the representation on that basis. The Attorneys are obligated by the Dowling case to advise Client of the reason they would decline to represent Client on a security retainer bases, and that reason is the Attorneys do not desire even potentially to compete with the creditors of the debtor-Client. This is advantageous to Client in the Attorneys' opinion because the Dowling case makes specific reference to creditor problems as a reason justifying the advance payment retainer over the security retainer.

3.3. The Parties hereto understand and acknowledge that the amount of services to be provided by the Attorneys and the outcome of the representation are extremely difficult to predict. Compensation will be paid to the Attorneys at their customary hourly rates (including all para-professional staff) as they exist from time to time. The rates are currently $450.00 for

O. Allan Fridman changes in rates will be shown on statements sent to the Client by showing each hourly rate being charged for the period involved in the bill.

3.4 All costs charged to the Client, all expenses incurred, and disbursements made by the Attorneys on the Client's behalf in connection with this matter will be payable by the Client in addition to the professional fees. Such expenses typically include but are not limited to: accountants or other expert witnesses and consultants, transcripts, long distance telephone calls, photocopying, messengers, travel costs (both local and longer distances), and electronic mail services. The foregoing list is by way of example only, and the omission of any charge, expense, or disbursement from said list is not intended as a limitation for such possible charges. The Client is responsible for, and shall pay immediately when billed, for the Attorneys' out of pocket costs and for certain expenses billed at standard rates without an exact computation of the Attorneys' costs (such as photocopies not sent to an outside service).

3.5 The Attorneys will be paid through the presentation of applications for compensation presented to and subject to the approval of the bankruptcy court. The Client may be heard regarding any requested fees and reimbursement of requested expenses.

3.6 Client acknowledges s/he/it understands that:

A. This is NOT a "flat fee" case, but rather the lawyer's fees are calculated on the basis of the number of hours the lawyer works times the lawyer's hourly rate.

 IB [Please Initial]

B. Depending on how many hours the lawyer works, the lawyer's bill may be greater than the initial retainer and even subsequent retainers, perhaps substantially so.

 IB [Please Initial]

C. All retainers called for in this Agreement become solely the lawyer's property when paid, subject to the return to the Client of any unused hourly portion thereof after payment of the Client's costs, all as more fully described above.

 IB [Please Initial]

D. The Client's costs described above are IN ADDITION TO the lawyer's fees.

 IB [Please Initial]

E. If the lawyer's fees and costs are approved by a Bankruptcy Court, the Bankruptcy Court generally also allows the lawyer to charge for the preparation of the Court papers and Court papers and other work necessary to obtain payment of the lawyer's fees and costs.

 IB [Please Initial]

Article 4. General Provisions

4.1 This Agreement shall be construed under a rule of reasonableness at the time it was entered, examining any provision thereof with a mind that the Parties hereto were acting in good faith and without oppression, attempting to reach a fair and equitable means on which the Attorneys could pursue the Client's interests on behalf of the Client and be paid the reasonable fees provided for herein. All actions taken in accordance herewith shall be construed under a rule of reasonableness as of the time they were taken.

4.2 This Agreement shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Illinois, where it arose, and where it shall substantially or totally be performed. For these reasons, also, venue of any dispute arising out of this Agreement is hereby set exclusively in any Court having subject matter jurisdiction located in Cook County, Illinois, and the Parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of any such Court.

4.3 The Client may discharge the Attorneys at will.

4.4 This Agreement may be signed in Counterparts.

Article 5. Legal Advice Regarding This Agreement

5.1 The Attorneys are not representing the Client regarding its entering this Agreement, nor are they rendering any legal advice to the Client regarding same.

5.2 The Client acknowledges and represents that the Attorneys have advised it that it should retain its own independent legal opinion (meaning from legal counsel other than the attorneys) regarding it entering this Agreement with the Attorneys, and that the Client has indeed obtained that independent legal advice or has knowingly waived its right to obtain such independent advice.

The Client is strongly urged and entreated by the Attorneys to obtain such outside, independent, legal opinion of the lawyer or lawyers of its choice before entering this Agreement, and to have said independent attorneys make any inquiries regarding this Agreement as they may so desire.
