5. In accordance with Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(A)-(G), the Debtors also draw the Court's attention to certain material provisions of the DIP Facility and the relief set forth in the Interim Order:

- a. Provisions that Grant Cross-Collateralization Protection (Other than Replacement Liens or Other Adequate Protection) to the Prepetition Secured Creditors (Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(A)). Not applicable.
- b. Binding the Estate to Validity, Perfection or Amount of Secured Debt or Limitations on Investigation (Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(B)). Interim Order ¶¶ E and 36.
- c. Waiver of Section 506 (c) Rights (Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(C)). Effective upon entry of the Final Order, no costs or expenses of administration shall be imposed upon any DIP Lender or any of the Collateral pursuant to Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. DIP Loan Agreement Sections 9.20, 9.21 and 9.24 and Interim Order ¶ 38.
- d. Liens on the Debtors Claims and Causes of Action Arising Under Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code (Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(D)). Liens on proceeds of avoidance actions subject to entry of the Final Order. DIP Loan Agreement Section 3.1 and Interim Order ¶ 6.
- e. Roll-Over Provisions (Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(E)). Not applicable.
- f. Disparate Treatment of Professionals ((Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(F)). Not applicable.
- g. Priming Lien (Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(G)). The Liens under the DIP Facility are first priority priming liens with seniority over all of the Prepetition Secured Parties except for the Senior Carve-Out and the Carve-Out. The Senior Prepetition Lender has consented to the priming liens subject to the Senior Carve-Out. The prepetition subordinated secured lenders, MMA, MHA and the Bridge Agent have not consented to the priming of their liens. DIP Loan Agreement definition of Permitted Indebtedness; Interim Order ¶¶ G. (ii) and 6.

6. The DIP Lender would not provide the DIP Facility and the Senior Prepetition Lender would not consent to the use of Cash Collateral without the inclusion of the provisions listed above, each of which was heavily negotiated among the parties. Moreover, these “extraordinary” provisions are justified under the circumstances for the reasons set forth below. Finally, the Debtors have determined in their sound business judgment that agreeing to such provisions was appropriate under the circumstances of these Cases to afford the Debtors immediate and much needed liquidity on the most competitive terms available to the Debtors.

BACKGROUND

A. General Background

7. On March 13, 2017 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition with this Court for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors continue to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrently with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors have requested procedural consolidation and joint administration of these Cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). No party has requested the appointment of a trustee or examiner in these Cases, and no statutory committees have been appointed or designated.

8. A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, and the facts and circumstances supporting this Motion and the above-captioned Cases, are set forth in greater detail in the Declaration of Andrew Birch in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and Requests for First Day Relief (the “First Day Declaration”), filed contemporaneously herewith and incorporated by reference herein.

B. Background Specific to the Relief Requested

(1) The Debtors’ Prepetition Indebtedness

a. Hercules Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement

9. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have outstanding obligations under that certain Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of March 31, 2015 (as amended, the “Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement”), by and between Sungevity, Inc. and Sungevity Development, as borrowers, certain of Sungevity, Inc.’s domestic subsidiaries, as guarantors (the “Prepetition Subsidiary Guarantors”), and Hercules Capital, Inc., formerly known as Hercules Technology Growth Capital, Inc. (“Hercules”), as lender and agent (in such capacity, the “Senior Prepetition Lender”). The Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement consists of a term loan facility (the “Term Loan Facility”, and the loans under such Term Loan Facility, the “Term Loans”) in an aggregate principal amount of $35.0 million and a revolving loan facility (the “Revolving Loan Facility”, and collectively with the Term Loan Facility, the “Hercules Facility”, and the loans under such Revolving Loan Facility, the “Revolving Loans”, and together with the Term Loans, the “Senior Prepetition Loans”) in an aggregate principal amount of up to $20 million. The availability under the Revolving Loan Facility is based on a borrowing base consisting of accounts receivable and inventory. The Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement, together with any other agreement, note, instrument, guaranty, mortgage, fixture filing, deed of trust, financing statement, pledge, assignment, and other document executed at any time in connection therewith, in each case as the same may be amended, modified, restated or supplemented from time to time, are hereinafter referred to collectively as the “Senior Prepetition Loan Documents”.

10. The interest rate on advances under both the Term Loan Facility and the Revolving Loan Facility is the sum of (a) the greater of the prime rate as reported in the Wall Street Journal or 3.25% plus (b) 3.70%. Interest on both the Term Loan and the Revolving Loans is payable monthly. Payments of interest on the Term Loan Facility were required as of January 2, 2017, and the payment of principal was originally required as of January 2, 2017, but the Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement was subsequently amended so that the payments of principal would commence on April 1, 2017. The Term Loan Facility and the Revolving Loan Facility have a maturity date of October 1, 2017.

11. The obligations under the Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement are secured by: (a) substantially all of Sungevity, Inc.'s assets other than: (i) intellectual property; (ii) collateral securing the obligations of Sungevity, Inc.'s backlevered financing with Atalaya (as defined below) (consisting of the equity interests of Sungevity Short Hills 2012, LLC and any assets of Sungevity Short Hills 2012 LLC and its subsidiaries); (iii) equity interests in excess of 65% of any direct foreign subsidiaries; and (iv) certain other excluded assets (collectively, the "Excluded Assets"); and (b) substantially all of the assets (other than intellectual property) of Sungevity Development and the Prepetition Subsidiary Guarantors (collectively, (a) and (b) are the "Senior Prepetition Collateral"). Sungevity, Inc. has also granted Hercules a negative pledge with respect to its intellectual property, which, among other things, prohibits Sungevity, Inc. from selling, transferring, assigning, mortgaging, pledging, leasing, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering its intellectual property (the "Negative Pledge"). The Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement includes negative covenants that restrict Sungevity, Inc.'s ability to obtain further debt financing beyond certain immaterial amounts (the "Negative Covenants"). The Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement provides that the occurrence of a circumstance that has a material adverse effect on Sungevity's business would be an event of default under the agreement.

12. If Sungevity defaults under the Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement or wants to prepay or refinance the Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement, it must pay (a) an end of term charge of approximately $3.5 million and (b) a prepayment fee equal to 1% of the outstanding amount being prepaid. In the event of a default, there is a 4% default interest charge. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors were in default under the terms of the Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement. In addition, the commencement of the Cases is an event of default under the Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement.

13. As of the Petition Date, $35 million is outstanding under the Term Loan Facility and $20 million is outstanding under the Revolving Loan Facility (collectively, the “Senior Prepetition Secured Obligations”), with no remaining amounts available to borrow under the Senior Prepetition Credit Agreement.

b. MMA LSA

14. On September 20, 2016, Sungevity, Inc. and Sungevity Development entered into a secured loan and security agreement (the “MMA LSA”) with MMA Energy Capital, LLC (“MMA”), for a term loan in the aggregate principal amount of $10 million (the “MMA Loan”). The MMA Loan is guaranteed by the Prepetition Subsidiary Guarantors. The interest rate on advances of the MMA Loan is 13.5% per annum and is payable monthly. The MMA Loan is due on the earlier of an initial public offering of Sungevity, Inc. or September 20, 2018.

15. The MMA Loan is secured by second priority security interests and liens on the Senior Prepetition Collateral (as more fully described in the definition of “Collateral” in the MMA LSA, (“MMA Loan Collateral”). Sungevity, Inc. also granted MMA a Negative Pledge and a Negative Covenant.

c. MHA LSA

16. On November 10, 2016, Sungevity, Inc. and Sungevity Development entered into a loan and security agreement (as amended, the “MHA LSA”) with MHA Trust LLC (“MHA”), for a term loan in the aggregate principal amount of $5.0 million (the “MHA Loan”). The MHA Loan is guaranteed by the Prepetition Subsidiary Guarantors. The interest rate on advances of the MHA Loan is 13.5% per annum and is payable monthly. The MHA Loan is due on the earlier of an initial public offering of Sungevity, Inc. or September 20, 2018.

17. The MHA Loan is secured by second priority security interests and liens on the Prepetition Senior Collateral (as more fully described in the definition of “Collateral” in the MHA LSA, the “MHA Loan Collateral”). Sungevity, Inc. has also granted MHA a Negative Pledge and a Negative Covenant.

d. Bridge Loan

18. In January 2017, Sungevity and its advisors engaged in lengthy negotiations with Hercules, MMA, MHA, and other parties regarding a potential bridge financing to address Sungevity’s immediate short term working capital needs. These negotiations culminated in the execution of a bridge loan agreement dated January 30, 2017 (the “Bridge Loan Credit Agreement”) by and between Sungevity, Inc. and Sungevity Development, as borrowers, the Prepetition Subsidiary Guarantors, as guarantors, Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, as collateral agent (the “Bridge Agent”), and the lenders party thereto (the “Bridge Lenders”) for a $9.5 million term loan (the “Bridge Loan” and, collectively with the MMA Loan and the MHA Loan, the “Junior Secured Obligations”). The maturity date of the Bridge Loan is September 20, 2018. The mandatory prepayment obligations require certain prepayments upon the closing of an equity financing or a sale of Sungevity. The Bridge Loan is secured by the Senior Prepetition Collateral (as more fully described in the definition of “Collateral” in the Bridge Loan Credit Agreement, the “Bridge Loan Collateral”) Sungevity, Inc. has also granted the Bridge Lenders a Negative Pledge and a Negative Covenant.

19. The liens granted under the Bridge Loan, MMA Loan, and MHA LSA (collectively, the “Junior Secured Liens”) on the Bridge Loan Collateral, MMA Loan Collateral, and MHA Loan Collateral, respectively (collectively, the “Junior Collateral”) are pari passu with each other and are all junior to the Senior Secured Liens.

20. Sungevity’s prepetition indebtedness described in paragraphs 9 – 19 above is subject to a second amended and restated intercreditor agreement dated as of January 30, 2017 (the “Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement”) among Hercules, MMA, MHA and the Bridge Agent on behalf of the Bridge Lenders (collectively, the “Prepetition Secured Parties”). The Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement governs the relative contractual rights of Hercules as senior lender, on the one hand, and MMA, MHA and the Bridge Lenders as subordinated lenders (collectively, the “Subordinated Lenders”), on the other hand.

e. Atalaya Term Loan

21. On December 12, 2016, Sungevity Short Hills 2012, LLC, a non-debtor subsidiary of Sungevity, Inc., entered into a credit agreement with Atalaya Administrative LLC, as agent, and Atalaya Special Opportunities Fund VI LP, as lender (together, “Atalaya”) for a term loan in the aggregate principal amount of $32 million. Sungevity, Inc. has agreed to guarantee up to $ 7 million of Sungevity Short Hills 2012, LLC’s obligations to Atalaya in a payment guaranty agreement and indemnity guaranty agreement. Sungevity, Inc. has granted Atalaya a Negative Pledge.

(2) The Debtors’ Efforts to Obtain DIP Financing

22. As described in the First Day Declaration, after the merger agreement with Easterly Acquisition was terminated in December 2016, the Debtors were left with a near term liquidity shortfall and longer term capital needs. Significantly, in connection with the merger agreement, the parties had agreed to a no-shop provision that prevented the Debtors from seeking alternative sources of financing prior to December 31, 2016, without incurring significant financial penalties. As a result, the entry into, and ultimate termination of, the merger agreement exacerbated Sungevity’s existing liquidity shortfall and deprived the Debtors of a timely solution for its longer term capital needs. In the two and a half months following the termination of the Easterly transaction, the Debtors quickly pivoted to the exploration of strategic alternatives to solve both its short and long term cash needs.

23. On January 23, 2017, the Debtors engaged Ducera Securities LLC (“Ducera”), as a restructuring advisor to advise the Debtors regarding potential restructuring opportunities, to identify potential sources of capital and buyers, and to assist in arranging and executing a potential sale of the Debtors’ business. At that time, the Debtors also began working with Greentech Capital Advisors. See Declaration of Joshua S. Scherer in Support of the Postpetition Financing Motion (the “Scherer Declaration”) at ¶ 6.

24. Immediately after its retention, Ducera, together with the Debtors and the Debtors’ other advisors, began exploring various strategic alternatives for these Cases, including a chapter 11 plan of reorganization and a transaction involving the sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors’ assets. To ensure that the Debtors had sufficient liquidity to continue operating while that process was underway, on January 30, 2017, Sungevity, Inc. and Sungevity Development obtained a $9.5 million Bridge Loan (as discussed above). The proceeds of the Bridge Loan were used to provide Sungevity with additional liquidity and runway to run a comprehensive restructuring and sale process, to run a comprehensive restructuring and sale process, negotiate debtor-in-possession financing terms, and prepare the company and its operations for a soft-landing once in chapter 11. See Scherer Declaration at ¶ 7.

25. Ultimately, given the Debtors’ liquidity constraints and difficulty securing long term financing necessary to support a refinancing, the Debtors and their professionals determined that the best way to maximize value for the Debtors’ estates was via a sale of all, or substantially all of the Debtors’ assets. See Scherer Declaration at ¶ 8. Ducera, in combination with the Debtors’ management team, the Strategic Committee of the Board of Directors of Sungevity, Inc. (the “Strategic Committee”), and the Debtors’ other advisors, sought to identify potential strategic and financial investors for an asset sale pursuant to section 363 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Id. at ¶ 8.

26. On February 10, 2017 the Strategic Committee authorized Ducera to reach out to potential providers of debtor-in-possession (“DIP”) financing. Ducera initially reached out to eight (8) potential DIP financing parties to discuss the opportunity on a “no-names” basis. Of these parties, only three (3) parties decided to sign a non-disclosure agreement and receive materials about the Debtors to help them evaluate the DIP financing opportunity. Ultimately, all three (3) parties declined to pursue the opportunity or provide a proposal due to several factors, including the limited assets of the Debtors, the Debtors’ history of negative cash flows, and the likely necessity to engage in a “priming fight” with the Debtors’ existing senior secured lender, Hercules. Id. at ¶ 9. At various points in time, Ducera and representatives of the Debtors, asked Hercules if they would consider providing DIP financing for a sale of assets pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. At no point did Hercules indicate any willingness to provide DIP Financing. Id. at 9.

27. On February 24, 2017, the Strategic Committee authorized Ducera to contact parties to discuss a potential 363 auction process (or, in the alternative, a sponsored plan of reorganization) and solicit non-binding indications of interest from such parties. Between February 24th and February 26th the Debtors held conversations with six (6) parties to discuss their interest in providing a stalking horse bid. One party immediately declined, while the others indicated varying levels of interest; the interested parties were subsequently sent letters providing procedures and a deadline for submission of non-binding indications of interest. The initial deadline of February 27th was extended to February 28th to allow additional time for parties to express their interest. As of the deadline, no parties had submitted non-binding indications of interest, although conversations with multiple parties were still ongoing. Id. at ¶ 10.

28. Ultimately, one party, NPG, indicated interest in participating in a sale process or plan of reorganization of the Debtors through a bankruptcy process. The Debtors and NPG had originally considered a plan of reorganization to be sponsored by NPG, but over the course of the next eleven (11) days, as Sungevity's liquidity became increasingly strained, Ducera, the Debtors, and the Debtors' other professional advisors engaged in intensive negotiations with NPG regarding the structure and terms of an asset sale. The Debtors and their professional advisors also engaged in extensive discussions with Hercules, the Debtors' senior secured prepetition lender, regarding the terms of access to cash collateral and a debtor-in-possession financing facility. On March 6, 2017, all of the parties reached an agreement in principle regarding DIP financing and an in-court sale process under Bankruptcy Code section 363. Id. at ¶ 11.

29. On March 13, 2017, the Debtors entered into the DIP Loan Agreement with LSHC as DIP Lender and the DIP Agent. To continue operating their business in the ordinary course to preserve the value of the Debtors' assets and complete the sale process, it is critical that the Debtors have access to the DIP Facility. The DIP Facility, coupled with the use of Cash Collateral, will also permit the Debtors to fund the administration of these Cases and is vital to the confidence of the Debtors' employees, customers, installers, suppliers, and vendors and the preservation and maintenance of the going-concern value of the Debtors' estates. Without Court approval of the DIP Facility, the Debtors will not have sufficient cash to make timely payments to suppliers, vendors, and employees that are required to support and maintain the Debtors' continued operations and complete the sale process. Absent the DIP Facility, there would be no choice but to immediately liquidate the Debtors' assets to the detriment all of their creditors, employees, customers and other interested parties. Id. at ¶ 12.

30. The DIP Loan Agreement permits the Debtors to incur expenditures in accordance with a budget (the "DIP Budget") satisfactory to the DIP Lender, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C. The proceeds of the DIP Facility will be used (a) for working capital and general corporate purposes of the Debtors and (b) to pay fees and expenses related to the DIP Facility and these Cases.

31. The terms of the DIP Facility require the Debtors to complete the sale of their assets in accordance with certain milestones. To maximize the value of their estates, and in compliance with the milestones under the proposed DIP Facility, the Debtors have contemporaneously with this Motion filed a motion seeking authority to conduct an auction process by which the Debtors will solicit offers and, ultimately, seek approval to sell substantially all of their assets to the Stalking Horse Purchaser or such other qualified bidder with the highest or otherwise best offer.

(3) Proposed Adequate Protection and Use of Cash Collateral

32. All cash, securities, and other property (other than Excluded Assets) of the Debtors as of the Petition Date, including, without limitation, all amounts on deposit or maintained by any Debtor in any account, was subject to rights of setoff or to (a) valid, perfected, enforceable first-priority liens under the Senior Prepetition Loan Documents and applicable law, and (b) valid, perfected, enforceable Junior Liens. The Debtors' cash balances are cash collateral of the Prepetition Secured Parties within the meaning of section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. All such cash (including, without limitation, all proceeds of Prepetition Collateral and all proceeds of property encumbered by liens and security interests granted under the Interim Order) is referred to herein as "Cash Collateral." In addition to the DIP Facility, the Debtors require the use of the Cash Collateral.

33. The proceeds of the DIP Facility, coupled with the use of the Cash Collateral (consistent with the DIP Budget), are necessary to provide the Debtors with the capital required to operate, preserve the value of their business and complete the sale process.

34. The Senior Prepetition Lender has consented to the use of the Cash Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Interim and Final Orders. The Subordinated Prepetition Lenders have not yet consented.

35. The Debtors submit that the Prepetition Secured Lenders are entitled to receive adequate protection pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code for, and to the extent of, any postpetition diminution in the value of their interest in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) resulting from the Debtors' use, sale, or lease of such collateral, the imposition of the automatic stay, and the subordination to the Carve-Out and the DIP Facility (collectively, the "Diminution in Value"). Accordingly, the Debtors will provide the following primary forms of adequate protection (the "Adequate Protection Package"):

- a) approval of the Milestones for the benefit of the Prepetition Secured Lenders;
- b) additional liens on unencumbered prepetition assets to the Prepetition Secured Lenders, junior only to the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Senior Carve-Out and the Carve-Out and, in each case, subject to the terms of the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement.
- c) replacement security interests and liens in the DIP Collateral to the Prepetition Secured Creditor in exchange for the subordination of their liens to the DIP Liens, and only to the extent of a Bid (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement) by the DIP Lender, which shall be junior only to the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Senior Carve-Out, and the Carve-Out, and shall, in each case, be subject to the terms of the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement;
- d) a superpriority administrative expense claim to the Prepetition Secured Lenders with priority in payment over all administrative expenses other than the DIP Superpriority Claim, the Carve-Out, and the Senior Carve-Out; and
- e) the Senior Secured Liens and Junior Secured Liens shall attach to the proceeds of the sale of any Prepetition Collateral in the order and priority as they existed before the Petition Date.

36. The Debtors submit that the Adequate Protection Package will adequately protect the Prepetition Secured Lenders' respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral from Diminution in Value, as well as for any decline in, or diminution of, the value of the Prepetition Secured Lender's liens or security interests under their respective prepetition loan documents. Further, the Debtors' preservation of estate assets through the use of Cash Collateral serves as its own form of adequate protection. The Prepetition Secured Lender will benefit inherently from the Debtors' proposed use of the Cash Collateral, which will prevent Diminution in Value and enhance the likelihood of preserving and maximizing the Debtors' overall going-concern value.

37. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a hearing (the "Final Hearing") as soon as practicable after the twenty-first day following the entry of the Interim Order to consider approval of the relief requested by the Motion on a final basis and establish the date that is seven days prior to the Final Hearing as the deadline for parties to file objections to the Motion.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

A. Entry into the Proposed DIP Loan Agreement Should Be Authorized

38. Absent the DIP Facility, and in particular the Interim Facility, there would be no choice but to immediately shutdown the Debtors' operations and promptly liquidate their assets resulting in the immediate loss of all employees and no company for the Debtors' numerous customers, vendors and suppliers to do business with. A liquidation of the Debtors' assets would allow for a recovery of approximately $10 million, significantly less than the more than $55 million owed to Hercules as Senior Prepetition Lender. See Scherer Declaration at ¶ 14.

B. Approval Under Sections 364(c) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is Merited

39. The Debtors propose to obtain the DIP Facility by providing to the DIP Lender security interests and liens as set forth above pursuant to section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The statutory requirement for obtaining postpetition credit under section 364(c) is a finding, made after notice and hearing, that a debtor is "unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of [the Bankruptcy Code]...." 11 U.S.C. § 364(c).

40. Section 364(c) financing is appropriate when the trustee or debtor-in-possession is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable as an ordinary administrative claim. See In re L.A. Dodgers LLC, 457 B.R. 308, 312 (Bankr. D. Del. 2011) (denying motion for authorization to enter into postpetition credit facility where debtors could not prove that they were unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense).

41. Courts have articulated a three-part test to determine whether a debtor is entitled to financing under section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, courts look to whether:

- a) the debtor is unable to obtain unsecured credit under section 364(b), i.e., by allowing a lender only an administrative claim;
- b) the credit transaction is necessary to preserve the assets of the estate; and
- c) the terms of the transaction are fair, reasonable, and adequate, given the circumstances of the debtor-borrower and the proposed lender.

L.A. Dodgers, 457 B.R. at 312 (citation omitted). As is fully set forth below, the Debtors have satisfied each of these conditions.

42. Section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor may obtain credit secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is already subject to a lien, after notice and a hearing, where the debtor is unable to “obtain such credit otherwise” and there is “adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.” 11 U.S.C. §364(d)(1). Consent by the secured creditors to priming obviates the need to show adequate protection. See Anchor Savs. Bank FSB v. Sky Valley, Inc., 99 B.R. 117, 122 (N.D. Ga. 1989) (“[B]y tacitly consenting to the superpriority lien, those [undersecured] creditors relieved the debtor of having to demonstrate that they were adequately protected.”). Accordingly, the Debtors may incur “priming” liens under the DIP Facility if either (a) the Prepetition Secured Lenders consented or (b) the Prepetition Secured Lender’s interests in their respective collateral are adequately protected.

43. Here, the Senior Prepetition Lender has consented. The Subordinated Prepetition Lenders have not affirmatively consented to the relief, however, their rights are limited pursuant to the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement and such consent is not required because their interests in their respective Prepetition Collateral are adequately protected as described below.

C. The Debtors Do Not Have an Alternative to the DIP Facility

44. Financing of the type and in the amount needed in these cases was unobtainable on an unsecured basis. See Scherer Declaration at ¶¶ 9 and 15. In these circumstances, “[t]he statute imposes no duty to seek credit from every possible lender before concluding that such credit is unavailable.” Bray v. Shenandoah Fed. Savs. & Loan Ass’n (In re Snowshoe Co.), 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986); see In re Phoenix Steel Corp., 39 B.R. 218, 222 (D. Del. 1984) (finding that the debtor satisfied its burden to show an inability to obtain credit on other terms through time and effort).

45. A debtor need only demonstrate “by a good faith effort that credit was not available without” the protections afforded to potential lenders by sections 364(c) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Snowshoe, 789 F.2d at 1088; see also In re Antico Mfg. Co., 31 B.R. 103, 105 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1983). Moreover, where there are few lenders likely to be able and willing to extend the necessary credit to a debtor, “it would be unrealistic and unnecessary to require [the debtor] to conduct . . . an exhaustive search for financing.” In re Sky Valley, Inc., 100 B.R. 107, 113 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1988). Here, the Senior Prepetition Lender, would not provide DIP financing and would only consent to a partial priming of its liens under the specific terms of this this DIP Facility. Thus, the Debtors submit that they can satisfy the requirements of sections 364(c) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code that alternative credit was not available on an unsecured basis allowable as an administrative claim under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or on a non-priming basis.

D. The DIP Facility is Necessary to Preserve the Assets of the Debtors' Estates

46. It is imperative that the Debtors promptly obtain access to financing. Access to substantial credit is necessary to meet the day-to-day costs associated with operating the Debtors' business, including funding for employee wages and other costs necessary for operations pending completion of the sale process. Immediate access to sufficient cash is therefore critical to the Debtors. In the absence of immediate liquidity, many of the Debtors' employees and contractors may refuse to continue providing services to the Debtors, rendering the Debtors unable to operate their business. A loss of confidence among employees and other interested parties in the Debtors' ability to access credit at this crucial time would have a material adverse impact on the Debtors and their estates.

47. For these reasons, direct access to the funds available under the DIP Loan Agreement is critical to the Debtors. The ongoing operations of their business demand that the Debtors not be delayed in receiving the beneficial effects of the DIP Facility; any substantial delay could have the same impact as denial of this Motion.

E. The DIP Loan Agreement is Fair, Reasonable, and Appropriate

48. The DIP Facility reflects the exercise of the Debtors' sound and prudent business judgment. As described above, the Debtors were not able to obtain alternative financing on an unsecured basis, nor were they able to obtain any financing on terms as favorable to them as the terms negotiated with the DIP Lender. The proceeds of the DIP Facility are sized to support the Debtors through the anticipated sale process, fund administrative costs of the Debtors' estates and preserve and promote the health and viability of the business. Specific to these Cases, the DIP Facility sets certain Milestones and related deadlines for the sale process and entitles the DIP Lender to certain fees. Based on the extensive negotiations that took place, the Debtors believe that these are the only terms on which the DIP Lender will provide the financing.

Moreover, the financial terms and covenants of the DIP Facility are standard and reasonable for financing of this kind. The Debtors believe that the terms of the DIP Loan Agreement provide sufficient flexibility for them to maximize value to their estates and pursue the sale of their assets. Significantly, although the DIP Lender and the Stalking Horse Purchaser are the same entity, the Debtors have preserved the ability to pursue higher and better offers for their assets through the sale process.

49. The DIP Loan Agreement provides that the security interests and administrative expense claims granted to the DIP Lender are subject to the Carve-Out. In Ames Department Stores, the bankruptcy court found that such “carve outs” are not only reasonable, but are necessary to ensure that official committees and debtors’ estates will be assured of the assistance of counsel. See In re Ames Dep’t Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. 34, 40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990).

50. The terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Agreement are fair and reasonable and were negotiated by the parties in good faith and at arm’s-length. The interest rate under the DIP Loan Agreement is within the range of market rates and fair and reasonable in light of the credit profile of the Debtors, the nature and extent of the Collateral, and the business risks associated with lending to the Debtors in these Cases, particularly given the fact that interest is payable in kind. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the DIP Lender should be accorded the benefits of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

F. The Debtors Have Exercised Sound Business Judgment in Determining that the DIP Facility Is Necessary

51. As described about and in the Scherer Declaration, after appropriate investigation and analysis, and given the exigencies of the circumstances, the Debtors have concluded that alternative credit of the type and in the amount required by the Debtors is not available on an unsecured basis. See Scherer Declaration at ¶¶ 6-9 and 15. Bankruptcy courts routinely defer to a debtor's business judgment on most business decisions, including the decision to borrow money, unless such decision fails the arbitrary and capricious standard. See Trans World Airlines, Inc. v. Travellers Int'l AG (In re Trans World Airlines, Inc.), 163 B.R. 964, 974 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (noting that approval of interim loan, receivables facility, and asset-based facility "reflect[ed] sound and prudent business judgment . . . [was] reasonable under the circumstances and in the best interest of [the debtor] and its creditors."); In re After Six, Inc., 154 B.R. 876, 882 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1993) (stating that debtor "is entitled to some free reign in fulfilling its perceived mission of . . . keeping an ongoing business afloat..."). Indeed, "[m]ore exacting scrutiny [of the debtor's business decisions] would slow the administration of the debtor's estate and increase its cost, interfere with the Bankruptcy Code's provision for private control of administration of the estate and threaten the court's ability to control a case impartially." Richmond Leasing Co. v. Capital Bank, N.A., 762 F.2d 1303, 1311 (5th Cir. 1985).

52. The Debtors have exercised sound business judgment in determining that the DIP Facility is not only appropriate, but that it is necessary. Without the liquidity provided by the DIP Facility, the Debtors would be unable to pay employees, installers, suppliers, and vendors, and other constituencies that are essential to the operation of the business. Furthermore, the Debtors believe that they will satisfy the legal prerequisites to borrow under the DIP Loan Agreement. The terms of the DIP Loan Agreement are fair and reasonable and are in the best interests of the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, the Debtors should be granted authority to enter into the DIP Loan Agreement, to borrow funds on the secured basis described above, and to take the other actions contemplated by the DIP Loan Agreement and as requested herein.

G. The Prepetition Secured Lenders Are Adequately Protected

53. As noted above, the Senior Prepetition Lender has consented to the priming of the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral. Without the DIP Facility and the use of Cash

Collateral, the only option would be to immediately liquidate all of the Debtors' assets, which would allow for a recovery of approximately $10 million, which is significantly less than the $55 million plus owed to the Senior Prepetition Lender. See Scherer Declaration at ¶ 14. In a liquidation, Subordinated Prepetition Lenders would receive nothing, so they are not harmed by the DIP Facility or the use of Cash Collateral and do not require any additional adequate protection.

54. Even if the Debtors were able to complete the sale process without DIP financing, which they cannot do, based upon the anticipated sale price, there is very likely to be no value to the Subordinated Prepetition Lenders pursuant to the sale under any reasonable set of assumptions. See Scherer Declaration at ¶ 14. As a result, the Subordinated Prepetition Lenders are not harmed by the DIP financing. Instead, the DIP Facility and use of Cash Collateral are themselves additional forms of adequate protection by maintaining the value of the collateral because it is clear that the sale value of the Debtors exceeds the liquidation value. As a result, the DIP Facility and use of Cash Collateral adequately protects the Subordinated Prepetition Creditors because there is no value in the Prepetition Collateral for them otherwise and the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral give them their only possible chance of a recovery.

55. Finally, even if there arguably could be some diminution in value to the Subordinated Prepetition Creditors as a result of the DIP Facility, which the Debtors do not think is the case, the Adequate Protection Package is sufficient because it includes additional liens on unencumbered assets (including proceeds from Avoidance Actions, intellectual property and other Excluded Assets), and a superpriority claim that will help to protect against any possible diminution. As a result, the Prepetition Secured Parties are adequately protected and the relief requested is appropriate.

H. Use of Cash Collateral Should Be Approved

56. Under section 363(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor may not use cash collateral unless “(a) each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents; or (b) the court, after notice and a hearing, authorizes such use . . . in accordance with the provisions of this section.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(2). The Debtors require the use of the Cash Collateral to fund their operations in accordance with the DIP Loan Agreement. Indeed, absent such relief, the Debtors would be unable to maintain operations, which would result in damaging consequences for the Debtors and their estates and creditors. As noted herein, the interests of the Prepetition Secured Lenders in the Cash Collateral will be protected by the Adequate Protection Package. Moreover, the Senior Prepetition Lender has consented to the use of the Cash Collateral. Accordingly, as part of the DIP Facility, the Debtors’ request to use the Cash Collateral in the operation of their business and administration of the Cases should be approved.

I. The Proposed Adequate Protection Package Should Be Authorized

57. Section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that, “on request of an entity that has an interest in property used . . . or proposed to be used [by a debtor-in-possession], the court . . . shall prohibit or condition such use . . . as is necessary to provide adequate protection of such interest.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(e). Section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code delineates the forms of adequate protection, which include periodic cash payments, additional liens, replacement liens, and other forms of relief. See 11 U.S.C. § 361. What constitutes adequate protection must be decided on a case-by-case basis. See MBank Dall., N.A. v. O’Connor (In re O’Connor), 808 F.2d 1393, 1396–97 (10th Cir. 1987); Martin v. United States (In re Martin), 761 F.2d 472, 474 (8th Cir. 1985); Shaw Indus., Inc. v. First Nat’l Bank of Pa. (In re Shaw Indus., Inc.), 300 B.R. 861, 865 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 2003). The focus of the requirement is to protect a secured creditor from diminution in the value of its interest in the particular collateral during the period of use.

See Resolution Trust Corp. v. Swedeland Dev. Grp. (In re Swedeland Dev. Grp.) 16 F.3d 552, 564 (3d Cir. 1994) (“[T]he whole purpose of adequate protection for a creditor is to insure that the creditor receives the value for which he bargained prebankruptcy.” (internal citations omitted)).

58. As detailed above, as adequate protection for the interests of the Prepetition Secured Lenders, the Debtors will provide them the Adequate Protection Package. Without access to the proposed DIP Facility and use of the Cash Collateral, the Debtors’ liquidity will quickly dry up, and the Debtors will be forced to cease operations, destroying the value of these estates to the detriment of all interested parties.

59. For the reasons set forth above, the Adequate Protection Package will sufficiently protect the Prepetition Lender’s interest in their collateral. Accordingly, the Adequate Protection Package is fair and reasonable and sufficient to satisfy the requirements of sections 363(c)(2) and (e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

J. Request for Modification of Automatic Stay for DIP Lender and DIP Agent

60. Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for an automatic stay upon the filing of a bankruptcy petition. The proposed DIP Loan Agreement contemplates a modification of the automatic stay, to the extent applicable, to permit the DIP Lender and DIP Agent to exercise of all their rights and remedies provided for in the DIP Loan Agreement upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default (as defined in the DIP Loan Agreement), provided that prior to the exercise of any enforcement remedies against the Collateral, the DIP Lender shall be required to give three (3) business days’ notice to the DIP Borrowers as provided for section 10.1 of the DIP Loan Agreement and in paragraph 25 of the Interim Order. These provisions allowing for a modification of the automatic stay are an appropriate feature of the DIP Facility and, in the Debtors' business judgment, are reasonable under the present circumstances.

K. Request for Immediate Interim Relief

61. Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and 4001(c) provide that a final hearing on a motion to obtain credit may not be commenced earlier than fourteen days after the service of such motion. See Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2), 4001(c)(2). Upon request, however, the Court is empowered to conduct a preliminary expedited hearing on the motion and to authorize the obtaining and use of credit to the extent necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to a debtor's estate pending a final hearing. See Local Rule 4001-2(b). In examining requests for interim relief under this rule, courts apply the same business judgment standard applicable to other business decisions. See, e.g., In re Simasko Prod. Co., 47 B.R. 444, 449 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1985). After the fourteen-day period, the request for financing is not limited to those amounts necessary to prevent destruction of the debtor's business. A debtor is entitled to borrow those amounts that it believes prudent in the operation of its business. See, e.g., id. at 449; Ames Dep't Stores, 115 B.R. at 36.

62. Pending the Final Hearing, the Debtors require immediate use of funds up to the amount the Term Loan commitments for, among other things, employee wages and other working capital needs. It is essential that the Debtors immediately have the ability to pay for postpetition operating expenses, as well as the prepetition expenses approved in the various first-day orders pending before the Court, to minimize the damage occasioned by their constrained liquidity.

63. Absent immediate use of the DIP Facility, the Debtors will be unable to pay ongoing operational expenses and will not be able to continue to make payments to key constituencies, such as employees and vendors, who are integral to the operation of the Debtors' business. Consequently, if interim relief is not obtained, the Debtors' efforts in these Cases will be jeopardized immediately and irreparably harmed to the detriment of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest.

64. As noted above, the Debtors are unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or credit on a non-priming basis that would be sufficient to maintain their operations. Without the DIP Facility, the Debtors' objective of stabilizing operations and facilitating their sale process will be severely jeopardized. The terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Agreement are fair and reasonable, and were negotiated by well-represented parties in good faith and at arm's-length. In these circumstances and, importantly, in light of the risk of possible material irreparable harm to the Debtors' operations, the Debtors respectfully submit that granting the relief requested by this Motion is warranted.

L. The DIP Financing Should Be Accorded the Benefits of Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code

65. Because the DIP Loan Agreement has been negotiated in good faith and at arm's-length, and no consideration is being provided to any party for obligations arising under the DIP Loan Agreement, other than as disclosed therein, the Debtors request that the DIP Loan Agreement be accorded the benefits of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

M. Payment of Fees is Reasonable and Appropriate

66. As described above, the Debtors have agreed, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, to pay certain fees to the DIP Agent and the DIP Lender in connection with the DIP Facility. Specifically, the Debtors will pay certain fees to the DIP Agent and the Work and Commitment Fees and a Facility Charge to the DIP Lenders. The Debtors believe that that the fees payable to the DIP Agent and the DIP lenders under the DIP Loan Agreement are reasonable and appropriate and give the Debtors access to DIP financing on the most favorable terms on which the DIP Lender would agree to make the DIP Facility available. The Debtors considered these fees when determining in the exercise of their sound business judgment that the DIP Facility constitutes the best terms on which the Debtors could obtain the postpetition financing necessary to continue their operations and conduct a fair and robust sale process. As a result, paying the fees in order to obtain the DIP Facility is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates.

SATISFACTION OF BANKRUPTCY RULE 6003

67. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 provides that the relief requested in the Motion may be granted if the “relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm” See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003. As described herein, the Debtors' estates will suffer immediate and irreparable harm if they are not granted immediate use of the DIP Facility in order to pay ongoing operational expenses. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

WAIVER OF BANKRUPTCY RULE 6004(h)

68. To implement the relief requested herein successfully, the Debtors respectfully request that the Interim Order and Final Order provide that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

NOTICE

69. Notice of this Motion will be given to the following parties, or in lieu thereof, to their counsel: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee; (b) the holders of the twenty (20) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis, excluding insiders); (c) Hercules Capital, Inc.; (d) MMA Energy Capital, LLC; (e) MHA Trust LLC; (f) Atalaya Special Opportunities Fund VI LP; (g) Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB; (h) Wilmington Trust, National Association; (i) the Securities & Exchange Commission; (j) the Office of the United States Attorney General for the District of Delaware; (k) the Internal Revenue Service; (l) the U.S. Department of Justice; (m) the offices of the attorneys general for the states in which the Debtors operate; (n) LSHC Solar Holdings LLC; and (o) Bridge Bank. Notice of this Motion and any order entered hereon will be served in accordance with Local Rule 9013-1(m). In light of the nature of the relief requested herein, the Debtors submit that no other or further notice is necessary.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court: (a) enter the Interim Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief requested in this Motion on an interim basis; (b) after the Final Hearing, enter the Final Order substantially in the form that shall be filed with the Court; and (c) grant such other and further relief as may be just and proper.
