- 5. Defamation

20
21 Plaintiff, YUICHIRO SAKURAI ("Plaintiff" or "Sakurai") complains and alleges as 22 follows:

23 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
24 (Material Misrepresentation)

- 25 1. Sakurai is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles in the State of 26 California. Sakurai is sometimes hereafter referred to as "Plaintiff."
- 27 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant Keiko Kato
28 ("Kato") is an attorney practicing law with multiple locations, including an office located at 385

1 S. Catalina Ave., Suite 3111, Pasadena, California 91106, and at all times relevant herein was
2 corporate counsel for Fresco International Corporation.

3 4. Plaintiff does not know the true names and capacities of Defendants, DOES 1
4 through 100 inclusive, and sue these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed
5 and believes, and on that basis alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants is 6 responsible for and caused its damages herein alleged. When the Plaintiff ascertains the true
7 names and capacities of Does 1 through 100, inclusive, he will amend this Complaint
8 accordingly.

9 5. On or about December 1, 2009, defendant, as corporate counsel for Fresco
10 International Corporation, prepared a Document entitled "Minutes of Special Meeting of the 11 Board of Directors," wherein 13 total shares of Fresco International Corporation issued to 12 Plaintiff. A true and correct copy of these Minutes of that meeting prepared by defendant are 13 attached hereto as Exhibit A and are incorporated herein by this reference.

14 6. As a result of the transaction, Plaintiff became the company's majority 15 shareholder.

16 7. The ownership of the number of shares of the corporation was further evidenced 17 in the Minutes of Special Meeting of the Shareholders of Fresco International Corp. prepared by 18 defendant, dated December 15, 2009. A true and correct copy of the Minutes of Shareholders,
19 dated December 15, 2009, is attached hereto as Exhibit B and is incorporated herein by this 20 reference.

21 8. In exchange for the majority ownership of Fresco International, plaintiff agreed to 22 pay Mr. Tsuneo Hisanaga $60,000.00, and an additional sum of $11,500.00, over a period of 23 time.

24 8. Immediately after plaintiff paid to Mr. Hisanaga the $60,000.00 down payment
25 and received the shares, plaintiff discovered that the value of the company was not as represented
26 and rather than purchasing shares of a solvent corporation, he discovered he needed to personally
27 pay approximately an additional $200,000 to keep the corporation afloat as well as forgiving
28 debts owed to the company by other shareholders.

1           9.     In light of the plaintiff's additional personal financing of approximately
2 $200,000.00, to keep Fresco International Corp. in business, on or about March 31, 2010,
3 plaintiff was elected to the position of president as evidenced by the Minutes of Special Meeting
4 of the Board of Directors of Fresco International Corp., prepared by defendant. A true and
5 correct copy of the Minutes of that meeting are attached hereto as Exhibit C and are incorporated
6 herein by this reference.

7           10.    On or about April 9, 2013, plaintiff received Notice of Special Meeting of the 8 Shareholders of Fresco International Corp. to be held on April 19, 2013. A true and correct copy
9 of the Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit D and is incorporated herein by this reference.

10          11.    In reviewing documents, plaintiff discovered a set of Minutes of Special Meeting
11 of the Board of Directors of Fresco International, dated December 1, 2009. A true and correct
12 copy of the Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit E and is incorporated herein by this reference.

13          12.    In response to the review of this Exhibit E, plaintiff immediately wired the sum of 14 $11,500.00 to Mr. Tsuneo Hisanaga on or about April 11, 2013. A true and correct copy of the 15 Wire receipt is attached hereto as Exhibit F and is incorporated herein by this reference.

16          13.    In response to the Notice plaintiff requested that the Meeting be held in English.
17 No response was received by plaintiff.

18          14.    Ms. Toshiko Yamaguchi telephoned Plaintiff shortly before the meeting and 19 notified Plaintiff that the Meeting would not be held in English. Plaintiff immediately responded
20 and stated that he would not attend the meeting and disconnected the phone call.

21          15.    Plaintiff received no word or response until he went to his bank and discovered
22 that the Fresco bank accounts were emptied and closed. Upon discussions with Chase Bank,
23 they stated that they were notified by representatives in New York that plaintiff, Yuichiro
24 Sakurai was removed as a director and officer of Fresco and that new officers were installed.

25          16.    On or about May 14, 2013, Plaintiff received an email from Ms. Yamaguchi, 26 purporting to be the Minutes of Special Meeting of Shareholders dated April 19, 2013. In the 27 Minutes, the number of 10 shares set aside Mr. Sakurai's name is in stark contrast to the number
28 of 13 shares set aside his name in prior Minutes.

1 17. In reviewing the documents set inside the corporate book delivered to Mr. Sakurai
2 displays two different sets of the December 1, 2009 Minutes, attached hereto as Exhibits A and 3 E.

4 18. As defendant Kato has been the corporate attorney of Fresco International from 5 inception, it became evident that defendant manipulated the December 1, 2009 Minutes,
6 changing the process of granting shares to Mr. Sakurai.

7 19. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege that pursuant to the Bylaws
8 of the corporation, for a Shareholder Meeting to take place and to be effective, a majority of 9 shares must be present to represent a quorum. By changing the Minutes and without Plaintiff's
10 knowledge as a shareholder, Defendant, Kato, permitted the other shareholders to fraudulently 11 hold themselves out as majority shareholders and take unilateral action they do not possess the 12 authority to take.

13 20. As of the date of the Complaint, the other shareholders, with the assistance of 14 defendant Kato manipulating the corporate minutes, have revised the Statement of Information
15 with the Secretary of State of New York without notice to plaintiff.

16 21. Although Plaintiff has informed defendant, Kato, as well as the other shareholders
17 that their actions are in violation of the Bylaws of the Corporation, the other shareholders have 18 refused to cease their behavior and/or acknowledge any rights possessed by plaintiff, due to the 19 misrepresentation of the securities sold to plaintiff.

20 22. As a result of defendant's material misrepresentation as alleged herein, defendant
21 is liable to plaintiff for damages according to proof.

22
23 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Joint and Several Liability Materially Aiding Others)

25 24. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 23, inclusive, of its 26 complaint as though set forth in full.

27 25. Defendant, Keiko Kato is, and at all times herein mentioned was the corporate 28 attorney for Fresco International.

1 26. Defendant, Kato, as corporate counsel for Fresco International Corp., materially
2 aided in the alteration of Corporate Minutes that changed the amount of shares transferred to
3 plaintiff.

4 27. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Kato's actions, plaintiff has been
5 damaged in a sum to be determined according to proof at trial.

6
7 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Joint and Several Liability of Materially Assisting Others)

9 28. Plaintiffs repeats and incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 27 inclusive, of 10 their complaint as though set forth in full.

11 29. At the time of the acts alleged herein, Defendant, Keiko Kato, materially assisted 12 in the alteration of corporate documents that changed the amount of shares transferred to the 13 Plaintiff.

14 30. Defendant Kato acted with the intent to deceive and/or defraud Plaintiff and to 15 mislead others as to Plaintiff's ownership in and control over Fresco and its assets.

16 31. As a result of the conduct of Kato as herein alleged, Plaintiff has been damaged in 17 an amount to be established according to proof at trial.

18
19 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Breach of Fiduciary Duty)

21 32. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 31 inclusive, of 22 their complaint as though set forth in full.

23 33. Defendant Kato is, and at all times herein mentioned was corporate counsel for 24 Fresco International Corp..

25 34. In her role as corporate counsel, Defendant Kato owes fiduciary duties to Fresco's
26 shareholders, directors and officers.

27 35. Kato breached her fiduciary duties owed to Fresco and Plaintiff in that she:
28

1 (a) deliberately altered corporate documents pertaining to the amount of
2 shares owned by the shareholders;

3 (b) assisted in and/or filed false and misleading papers on behalf of Fresco
4 with the New York and California Secretary of State;

5 (c) Made false and misleading statements to others that actions at a
6 shareholders meeting were valid although she knew they were not.

7 55. As a result of Kato's violation of her fiduciary duties as set forth herein, Plaintiff
8 has been damaged in the sum to be determined according to proof.

9
10 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Defamation)

12 56. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference paragraph 1 through 55 as if fully 13 set forth herein.

14 57. On or about July 25, 2013, defendant sent a letter to Mr. Robert Taddeo of 15 Pacific Electronics Enterprises, Inc. A copy of this letter and the attachments are attached
16 hereto as Exhibit G and made a part hereof.

17 58. In the letter, defendant Kato falsely states that "Ms. Yoko Nogami has been 18 appointed by the Board of Directors of Fresco International Corp. as the new C.E.O. and 19 President."

20 59. Defendant Kato is fully aware that the statement is false since, in her capacity as 21 corporate counsel, no quorum was present as required at the Shareholders Meeting removing 22 plaintiff as Director.

23 60. The Defamatory Statements disparaged Plaintiff's business reputation because the 24 letters from Defendant Kato purported to be from her in her official capacity that Plaintiff was no
25 longer the president and C.E.O. and was continuing under another's leadership.

26 61. As set forth in Exhibit G, this letter was published to at least one of Plaintiff's 27 vendors and/or suppliers, and is believed there are many others these letters were published to.

28

1 71. Unless this Court issues declaratory relief, these false and damaging statements
2 will continue.

3
4 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 ( Unfair Business Practices Business and Professions Code section 17200)

6
7 72. Plaintiffs repeats and incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 71, inclusive of his
8 complaint as though set forth in full.

9 73. The aforementioned acts and conduct of Kato constitutes unfair business practices
10 under California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et. seq.

11 74. Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, including without limitation, restitution.

12 75. Plaintiff is entitled to recover his attorney's fees and costs incurred in connection
13 with the prosecution of this action.

14
15 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Injunctive Relief)

17 76. Plaintiffs incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 75 inclusive, of 18 its complaint, as though set forth in full.

19 77. As alleged herein, Kato is misrepresenting to others that Plaintiff is not the 20 majority shareholder, president and/or C.E.O. of Fresco. Further, Kato has either assisted, aided 21 and or prepared documents with the New York and California Secretary of State stating that 22 Sakurai is not an officer or a director of Fresco International Corp..

23 78. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that others are negotiating
24 contracts on behalf of Fresco and conducting business on behalf of Fresco with the aid and or 25 assistance of Defendant without the knowledge or consent of Plaintiff.

26 81. Defendants' actions are causing irreparable injury to Plaintiff by converting 27 Plaintiffs' property, misleading innocent third parties as to the true ownership, authority and 28 control of Fresco,

1           82. For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff seeks a temporary restraining order, and
2 preliminary and permanent injunctions prohibiting Defendant and her agents, officers, employees
3 and representatives, or anyone acting in concert therewith, from moving or exercising control
4 over any of Fresco's and Plaintiffs' property, including, but not limited to, withdrawing or 5 causing or permitting the withdrawal or payment of any funds from any Fresco bank account or 6 bank account used to transact Fresco business, except to Plaintiff or pursuant to further court
7 order.

8           83. For all the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff seeks a temporary restraining order and 9 preliminary and permanent injunctions, restraining and enjoining Defendants and their respective 10 agents, officers, employees and representatives, and all persons acting in concert therewith, from 11 engaging in, or performing, directly or indirectly and or all of the following acts:

12           (a) Transferring, directly or indirectly, any interest by sale, shipment of goods,
13 pledge, grant of security interest, assignment, invoice or encumbering in any manner the 14 Fresco's assets, and all proceeds thereof;

15           (b) Moving any of Fresco's property and assets and all proceeds thereof and Fresco's
16 books and records and the books and records of the Defendants to the extent they pertain
17 to Fresco business or assets from any location;

18           (c) Transferring, concealing, destroying, defacing or altering any of Fresco's books
19 and records or the books and records of the Defendants to the extent they pertain to 20 Fresco's assets or business affairs;

21           (d) Demanding, collecting, receiving or in any other way diverting or using Fresco's 22 assets or proceeds thereof; and

23           (e) Causing any mail to be forwarded to any address other than the address to which 24 it is sent to its principal place of business in the state of California, or otherwise
25 interfering with or intercepting any mail intended for Fresco.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION PACKAGE

[CRC 3.221 Information about Alternative Dispute Resolution]

For additional ADR information and forms visit the Court ADR web application at www.lasuperiorcourt.org (click on ADR).

The plaintiff shall serve a copy of this Information Package on each defendant along with the complaint (Civil only).

What is ADR:

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is the term used to describe all the other options available for settling a dispute which once had to be settled in court. ADR processes, such as arbitration, mediation, neutral evaluation (NE), and settlement conferences, are less formal than a court process and provide opportunities for parties to reach an agreement using a problem-solving approach.

There are many different kinds of ADR. All of them utilize a "neutral", an impartial person, to decide the case or help the parties reach an agreement.

Mediation:

In mediation, a neutral person called a "mediator" helps the parties try to reach a mutually acceptable resolution of the dispute. The mediator does not decide the dispute but helps the parties communicate so they can try to settle the dispute themselves. Mediation leaves control of the outcome with the parties.

Cases for Which Mediation May Be Appropriate

Mediation may be particularly useful when parties have a dispute between or among family members, neighbors, or business partners. Mediation is also effective when emotions are getting in the way of resolution. An effective mediator can hear the parties out and help them communicate with each other in an effective and nondestructive manner.

Cases for Which Mediation May Not Be Appropriate

Mediation may not be effective if one of the parties is unwilling to cooperate or compromise. Mediation also may not be effective if one of the parties has a significant advantage in power over the other. Therefore, it may not be a good choice if the parties have a history of abuse or victimization.

Arbitration:

In arbitration, a neutral person called an "arbitrator" hears arguments and evidence from each side and then decides the outcome of the dispute. Arbitration is less formal than a trial, and the rules of evidence are often relaxed. Arbitration may be either "binding" or "nonbinding." Binding arbitration means that the parties waive their right to a trial and agree to accept the arbitrator's decision as final. Nonbinding arbitration means that the parties are free to request a trial if they do not accept the arbitrator's decision.

Cases for Which Arbitration May Be Appropriate

Arbitration is best for cases where the parties want another person to decide the outcome of their dispute for them but would like to avoid the formality, time, and expense of a trial. It may also be appropriate for complex matters where the parties want a decision-maker who has training or experience in the subject matter of the dispute.

Cases for Which Arbitration May Not Be Appropriate

If parties want to retain control over how their dispute is resolved, arbitration, particularly binding arbitration, is not appropriate. In binding arbitration, the parties generally cannot appeal the arbitrator's award, even if it is not supported by the evidence or the law. Even in nonbinding arbitration, if a party requests a trial and does not receive a more favorable result at trial than in arbitration, there may be penalties.

Neutral Evaluation:

In neutral evaluation, each party gets a chance to present the case to a neutral person called an "evaluator." The evaluator then gives an opinion on the strengths and weaknesses of each party's evidence and arguments and about how the dispute could be resolved. The evaluator is often an expert in the subject matter of the dispute. Although the evaluator's opinion is not binding, the parties typically use it as a basis for trying to negotiate a resolution of the dispute.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Be Appropriate

Neutral evaluation may be most appropriate in cases in which there are technical issues that require special expertise to resolve or the only significant issue in the case is the amount of damages.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Not Be Appropriate

Neutral evaluation may not be appropriate when there are significant personal or emotional barriers to resolving the dispute.

Settlement Conferences:

Settlement conferences may be either mandatory or voluntary. In both types of settlement conferences, the parties and their attorneys meet with a judge or a neutral person called a "settlement officer" to discuss possible settlement of their dispute. The judge or settlement officer does not make a decision in the case but assists the parties in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case and in negotiating a settlement. Settlement conferences are appropriate in any case where settlement is an option. Mandatory settlement conferences are often held close to the date a case is set for trial.

NEUTRAL SELECTION

Parties may select a mediator, neutral evaluator, or arbitrator from the Court Party Select Panel or may hire someone privately, at their discretion. If the parties utilize the Random Select Mediation or Arbitration Panel, the parties will be assigned on a random basis the name of one neutral who meets the case criteria entered on the court's website.

COURT ADR PANELS

- Party Select Panel The Party Select Panel consists of mediators, neutral evaluators, and arbitrators who have achieved a specified level of experience in court-connected cases. The parties (collectively) may be charged $150.00 per hour for the first three hours of hearing time. Thereafter, the parties may be charged for additional hearing time on an hourly basis at rates established by the neutral if the parties consent in writing.
- Random Select Panel The Random Select Panel consists of trained mediators, neutral evaluators, and arbitrators who have not yet gained the experience to qualify for the Party Select Panel, as well as experienced neutrals who make themselves available pro bono as a way of supporting the judicial system. It is the policy of the Court that all Random Select panel volunteer mediators, neutral evaluators, and arbitrators provide three hours hearing time per case. Thereafter, the parties may be charged for additional hearing time on an hourly basis at rates established by the neutral if the parties consent in writing.
- Private Neutral The market rate for private neutrals can range from $300-$1,000 per hour.

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES
ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION PACKAGE
[CRC 3.221 Information about Alternative Dispute Resolution]

For additional ADR information and forms visit the Court ADR web application at www.lasuperiorcourt.org (click on ADR).

The plaintiff shall serve a copy of this Information Package on each defendant along with the complaint (Civil only).

What is ADR:

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is the term used to describe all the other options available for settling a dispute which once had to be settled in court. ADR processes, such as arbitration, mediation, neutral evaluation (NE), and settlement conferences, are less formal than a court process and provide opportunities for parties to reach an agreement using a problem-solving approach.

There are many different kinds of ADR. All of them utilize a "neutral", an impartial person, to decide the case or help the parties reach an agreement.

Mediation:

In mediation, a neutral person called a "mediator" helps the parties try to reach a mutually acceptable resolution of the dispute. The mediator does not decide the dispute but helps the parties communicate so they can try to settle the dispute themselves. Mediation leaves control of the outcome with the parties.

Cases for Which Mediation May Be Appropriate

Mediation may be particularly useful when parties have a dispute between or among family members, neighbors, or business partners. Mediation is also effective when emotions are getting in the way of resolution. An effective mediator can hear the parties out and help them communicate with each other in an effective and nondestructive manner.

Cases for Which Mediation May Not Be Appropriate

Mediation may not be effective if one of the parties is unwilling to cooperate or compromise. Mediation also may not be effective if one of the parties has a significant advantage in power over the other. Therefore, it may not be a good choice if the parties have a history of abuse or victimization.

Arbitration:

In arbitration, a neutral person called an "arbitrator" hears arguments and evidence from each side and then decides the outcome of the dispute. Arbitration is less formal than a trial, and the rules of evidence are often relaxed. Arbitration may be either "binding" or "nonbinding." Binding arbitration means that the parties waive their right to a trial and agree to accept the arbitrator's decision as final. Nonbinding arbitration means that the parties are free to request a trial if they do not accept the arbitrator's decision.

Cases for Which Arbitration May Be Appropriate

Arbitration is best for cases where the parties want another person to decide the outcome of their dispute for them but would like to avoid the formality, time, and expense of a trial. It may also be appropriate for complex matters where the parties want a decision-maker who has training or experience in the subject matter of the dispute.

Cases for Which Arbitration May Not Be Appropriate

If parties want to retain control over how their dispute is resolved, arbitration, particularly binding arbitration, is not appropriate. In binding arbitration, the parties generally cannot appeal the arbitrator's award, even if it is not supported by the evidence or the law. Even in nonbinding arbitration, if a party requests a trial and does not receive a more favorable result at trial than in arbitration, there may be penalties.

Neutral Evaluation:

In neutral evaluation, each party gets a chance to present the case to a neutral person called an "evaluator." The evaluator then gives an opinion on the strengths and weaknesses of each party's evidence and arguments and about how the dispute could be resolved. The evaluator is often an expert in the subject matter of the dispute. Although the evaluator's opinion is not binding, the parties typically use it as a basis for trying to negotiate a resolution of the dispute.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Be Appropriate

Neutral evaluation may be most appropriate in cases in which there are technical issues that require special expertise to resolve or the only significant issue in the case is the amount of damages.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Not Be Appropriate

Neutral evaluation may not be appropriate when there are significant personal or emotional barriers to resolving the dispute.

Settlement Conferences:

Settlement conferences may be either mandatory or voluntary. In both types of settlement conferences, the parties and their attorneys meet with a judge or a neutral person called a "settlement officer" to discuss possible settlement of their dispute. The judge or settlement officer does not make a decision in the case but assists the parties in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case and in negotiating a settlement. Settlement conferences are appropriate in any case where settlement is an option. Mandatory settlement conferences are often held close to the date a case is set for trial.

NEUTRAL SELECTION

Parties may select a mediator, neutral evaluator, or arbitrator from the Court Party Select Panel or may hire someone privately, at their discretion. If the parties utilize the Random Select Mediation or Arbitration Panel, the parties will be assigned on a random basis the name of one neutral who meets the case criteria entered on the court's website.

COURT ADR PANELS

- Party Select Panel The Party Select Panel consists of mediators, neutral evaluators, and arbitrators who have achieved a specified level of experience in court-connected cases. The parties (collectively) may be charged $150.00 per hour for the first three hours of hearing time. Thereafter, the parties may be charged for additional hearing time on an hourly basis at rates established by the neutral if the parties consent in writing.
- Random Select Panel The Random Select Panel consists of trained mediators, neutral evaluators, and arbitrators who have not yet gained the experience to qualify for the Party Select Panel, as well as experienced neutrals who make themselves available pro bono as a way of supporting the judicial system. It is the policy of the Court that all Random Select panel volunteer mediators, neutral evaluators, and arbitrators provide three hours hearing time per case. Thereafter, the parties may be charged for additional hearing time on an hourly basis at rates established by the neutral if the parties consent in writing.
- Private Neutral The market rate for private neutrals can range from $300-$1,000 per hour.
